Experience

January 2010 – Present

Freelance Web Designer

Hexl – Self-employed

Using the skills I picked up at my previous jobs I have set up freelance. I take on design and development projects for a variety of clients and design agencies.

December 2008 – February 2010

Web Designer

Splinter Design
Communications

Working within the New Media team I built websites using XHTML, CSS, PHP and Javascript. I also took on projects including SEO, social network applications and video editing, filming and directing.

During my time at Splinter I developed skills in PHP and Javascript and gained more project management skills and experience.

I worked with a variety of clients including National Museums Liverpool, Knowsley Metropolitan Borough Council, Liverpool Primary Care Trust and Merseyside TravelWise on projects large and small.

July 2009 – October 2009

Music Video Scout and Facebook Admin

Radar Music Videos

Reviewed and commented on new Radar Featured videos within the Radar Facebook page. I scouted out new directors and music promos from a variety of sources and headhunted the Directors for Radar. I also promoted Radar within Facebook, Twitter and other online media.

August 2007 – December 2008

Multimedia Designer

Black and Ginger

Working in a small team I was in charge of the multimedia side of projects. I've worked with some interesting clients and have project managed an animation, a documentary, a CD-ROM and an SEO campaign.

September 2008

Blogger and Photographer

BBC Merseyside

During the Liverpool 08 Capital of Culture event 'La Machine' I worked for the BBC as a blogger documenting the event over 4 days. I spent the 4 days taking photo's, twittering and vblogging and had several pieces featured on the BBC Liverpool 08 site.
